

Nondisclosure Agreement

This Agreement (the "Agreement") made and entered into as of this 18 day of May, 2007, by and between The University of Puerto Rico, having represented herein by the Chancellor of the University of Puerto Rico, Mayagüez Campus, Mr. Jorge Iván Vélez Arocho ("Disclosing Party") and Jasco, Inc., represented herein by its authorized officer, Frank E. Mason III with address of 8649 Commerce Drive, Easton, Maryland 21601, ("Receiving Party"), WHEREAS Disclosing Party has developed and owns proprietary technical and confidential information concerning the Fourier transform infrared (FT-IR) spectral analysis of Protein, Peptide or Peptoid for the determination of Aggregation, Stability and Viability research (hereinafter the "Invention").

WHEREAS Receiving Party is considering entering into a business arrangement with Disclosing Party under proprietary information related to the Invention and as part of that consideration Receiving party desires the opportunity to evaluate the Invention on a confidential basis;

WHEREAS Disclosing Party is willing to disclose confidential and proprietary information regarding the Invention to Receiving Party on a non-exclusive basis solely for an evaluation under terms and conditions that will permit Receiving Party initially to obtain an overview of the Invention sufficient for a decision on whether to enter into further business arrangements regarding the Invention, while preserving for Disclosing Party the confidential, proprietary nature of the Invention.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. As used herein Confidential Information and or proprietary information shall mean all information, documentation, manufacturing techniques software (including listings thereof and documentation related thereto) and devices disclosed or made available by Disclosing Party to Receiving Party, including, but not limited to the existence of discussions between Disclosing Party and Receiving Party, and Disclosing Party's Invention, patent applications, trade secrets, know how business plans, prototypes, present and future products and policies ("Confidential Information").

"Confidential Information" shall also include all information or material, written or oral, that has or could have commercial value or other utility in the business and or practice area in which Disclosing Party is engaged.

2. In the event that Disclosing Party furnishes physical or tangible copies of any of the

Confidential Information to Receiving Party, Receiving Party acknowledges and agrees that these materials are furnished under the following conditions: (a) these materials are loaned to Receiving Party solely for purposes of evaluation and review; (b) these materials shall be treated consistent with the Receiving Party's obligation for Confidential Information under this Agreement; (c) Receiving Party may not copy or otherwise duplicate these materials; and (d) Receiving Party shall return to Disclosing Party any and all such material (including but not limited to records, notes, and other written, printed, or tangible materials) in its possession pertaining to Confidential Information immediately if Disclosing Party requests it in writing.

3. Receiving Party's obligations under this Agreement do not extend to information that is: (a) publicly known at the time of disclosure or subsequently becomes publicly known through no fault of the Receiving Party; (b) discovered or created by the Receiving Party before disclosure by Disclosing Party; (c) learned by the Receiving Party through legitimate means other than from the Disclosing Party or Disclosing Party's representatives; or (d) is disclosed by Receiving Party with Disclosing Party's prior written approval.

Specific aspects or details of Confidential Information shall not be deemed to be within the public domain or in the possession of Receiving Party merely because the Confidential Information is embraced by general disclosures in the public domain or in the possession of Receiving Party. In addition, any combination of Confidential Information shall not be considered in the public domain or in the possession of Receiving Party merely because individual elements thereof are in the public domain or in the possession of Receiving Party unless the combination and its principles are in the public domain or in the possession of Receiving Party.

4. Receiving Party acknowledges and agrees that Confidential Information is proprietary to and a valuable trade secret of Disclosing Party and that any disclosure or unauthorized use thereof will cause irreparable harm and loss to Disclosing Party.
5. Receiving Party shall hold and maintain the Confidential Information in strictest confidence for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Disclosing Party. Receiving Party shall not, without prior written approval of Disclosing Party, use for Receiving Party's own benefit, publish, copy, or otherwise disclose to others, including its own employees, or permit the use by others for their benefit or to the detriment of Disclosing Party, any Confidential Information.
6. This Agreement shall be effective on the date of signature. The nondisclosure provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination, cancellation or expiration of this Agreement and Receiving Party's duty to hold Confidential Information in confidence shall remain in effect until the Confidential Information no longer qualifies as a trade secret or until Disclosing Party sends Receiving Party written notice releasing Receiving Party from this Agreement, whichever occurs first. Further the obligation not to disclose Confidential Information shall not be affected by bankruptcy, assignment, attachment or seizure procedures, whether initiated by or against Receiving Party.

7. No rights or licenses, expressed or implied, are hereby granted to Receiving Party under any patents, copyrights or trade secrets of Disclosing Party as a result of or related to this Agreement.
8. Receiving Party will inform Disclosing Party if Receiving Party discovers that someone else is making or threatening to make unauthorized use of the Confidential Information.
9. At any time Disclosing Party may request Receiving Party to return all of the Confidential Information. In that event, Receiving Party shall immediately cease all use of the Confidential Information and return to Disclosing Party all documents containing or incorporating any Confidential Information within five (5) days.
10. If it is determined by either party hereto that an agreement relative to the use of the Confidential Information cannot be successfully negotiated, each party shall return to the other party any and all written material and/or prototypes and/or samples and or any other documentation received. The return of said material shall not affect the obligations of each party to treat the Confidential Information disclosed to it as confidential and not to use same, which confidentiality shall continue until the Confidential Information no longer qualifies as a trade secret or until Disclosing Party sends Receiving Party written notice releasing Receiving Party from this Agreement, whichever occurs first.
11. Any notice required by this Agreement or given in connection with it, shall be in writing and shall be given to the appropriate party by personal delivery or by certified mail, postage prepaid.
12. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute either party a partner, joint venturer, or employee of the other party for any purpose. If a court finds any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement shall be interpreted so as best to effect the intent of the parties. This Agreement expresses the complete understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter and supersedes all prior proposals, agreements, representations, and understandings. This Agreement may not be amended except in a writing signed by both parties. The formation, effect, performance and construction of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico of the United States of America. The failure to exercise any right provided in this Agreement shall not be a waiver of prior or subsequent rights. This Agreement and each party's obligations shall be binding on the representatives, assigns, and successors of such party. Each party has signed this Agreement through its authorized representative.
